26.2 with Donna Appreciates their Volunteers

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (May 13, 2011) — 26.2 with Donna staff hosted a volunteer appreciation party on May 6 at JELD-WEN Stadium Village at TPC Sawgrass. Over 2,500 volunteers contributed their time toward the annual race weekend events. Four hundred volunteers enjoyed the fun filled evening of free food and drinks, goodie bags, live entertainment, interactive games and activities.

“26.2 with Donna deeply appreciates our volunteers for all the time and effort they put into making each year’s race weekend events so special,” said Donna Deegan, founder and event chairman of 26.2 with Donna. “Our volunteers play a significant role in the success of the 26.2 with Donna and we commend them for their continued commitment to the cause.”

Registration to become a volunteer in 2012 will open in fall 2011. There are a variety of pre-race day and race day volunteer opportunities available. For volunteer related questions, e-mail our Volunteer Coordinator at volunteer@breastcancermarathon.com.
