SMG Jacksonville to “Turn The Arena Pink” in Support of Breast Cancer Awareness Month

-Attendees of Carrie Underwood concert are encouraged to show support by wearing pink at upcoming event-

Jacksonville, Fla., - October 22, 2010 – SMG Jacksonville, the manager of six sport and entertainment venues in the city, will “Turn the Arena Pink” in support of Breast Cancer Awareness Month for the upcoming Carrie Underwood concert on Tuesday, October 26th. In honor of those affected by breast cancer, SMG will turn the Veterans Memorial Arena pink, and is encouraging all attendees to wear pink at the event in support of the cause.

“SMG Jacksonville is a passionate supporter of a number of local charitable organizations, and ‘Turn the Arena Pink’ is a great way for us to join the effort to finish breast cancer here on the First Coast,” said Robin Timothy, Assistant General Manager of Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena, SMG Jacksonville. “We are proud supporters of local organizations, like The 26.2 with Donna, which does so much to raise awareness and funds for breast cancer in our community.”

On the night of the concert, the downtown arena will be given a fully pink makeover, complete with pink lighting and special offers for pink refreshments. Through the event, SMG Jacksonville is also helping to promote participation in 26.2 With Donna events.

26.2 with Donna’s mission is to passionately produce world class events to raise funds for ground breaking breast cancer research and to empower those living with breast cancer. Seventy percent of all race proceeds go to the Mayo Clinic for bench top breast cancer research, and thirty percent of all race proceeds go to The Donna Foundation to help breast cancer patients meet critical financial needs. Attendees can find information about 26.2 with Donna outside the main entrance of the arena.

The concert will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, October 26. Tickets are available online through Ticketmaster, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Veterans Memorial Arena box office, located at 300 A. Philip Randolph Boulevard.
