FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE DONNA HICKEN FOUNDATION IS CALLING ALL RUNNERS AND VOLUNTEERS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE INAUGURAL RACE OF 26.2 WITH DONNA THE NATIONAL MARATHON TO FIGHT BREAST CANCER

The Donna Hicken Foundation is calling all runners and volunteers to register to participate in the 26.2 with Donna The National Marathon To Fight Breast Cancer on Sunday, February 17, 2008.

Runners will enjoy panoramic views of the Intracoastal Waterways and tidal marshland, and meander through the unique beach communities of Jacksonville Beach, Neptune Beach and Atlantic Beach. Runners and volunteers can show their support by registering online today. Online race registration will remain open until February 14, 2007.

If you're not into running but still want to do your part to finish breast cancer, there are many ways to be a part. This weekend-long event needs enthusiastic volunteers to help with the marathon, half-marathon, expo, pasta party and more. In addition, if you're a cheerleader, play in a band, belong to a community organization or have any other special talents, then come out and showcase your ability and spirit as a curb crew along the race route.

Boaters, you too can be a part of the fight against breast cancer. A 2.5 mile stretch of the course will detour onto the beautiful hard-packed sand of Jacksonville Beach. You can show your support by decorating your boat in PINK and anchoring up along the intracoastal or the 2.5 mile beach portion of the race route. The color PINK represents breast cancer awareness and acts as a sign of encouragement and hope all around the world.
